

Mild IC

The Mild IC encloses just the distal portion of the ischipubic ramus and stabilizes the ischium against the gently sloping posterioromedial walls. This "NML" type of brim is suitable for many amputees as the limited ischial containment is very comfortable for most people at the outset.

Posterior View

Proximal View

Otto Bock[®]

QUALITY FOR LIFE